Tour of graves at cemetery

A tour around a Black Country cemetery will look at the graves of historical figures including Dr Edwin Hardwicke – father of actor Sir Cedric Hardwicke.

Authors and historians Jean Weston and Marlene Price will be leading tours around Lye Cemetery next month.

The West Midlands Historic Buildings Trust, in association with Dudley Council, is opening up the cemetery for two spring walks on Saturday May 7 at 11am and 2pm.

There will also be chance to see inside Lye and Wollescote chapels and buy a copy of the trust's book A Victorian Cemetery and its Notable Burials.

The tours are free to attend.

People can meet at Lye and Wollescote Cemetery Chapel.
